- 3.1.3. The Parties commit to the following consultative principles:
- a) Consultation involves the sharing of information and the exchange of views between ForestrySA and its employees and their representatives and the genuine opportunity for them to contribute effectively to any decision-making process with significant potential impact on groups of employees;
 - b) ForestrySA shall consult in good faith, not simply advise what will be done;
 - c) Workplace change, which will affect a significant number of employees, should not be implemented before appropriate consultation has occurred with employees and their representatives; and
 - d) Employee representatives will be given the opportunity to adequately consult with the people they represent in the workplace in relation to issues, which are the subject of consultation pursuant to this provision.
 - e) It is an accepted principle that effective workplace relationships can only be achieved if appropriate consultation between the parties occurs on a regular basis.
- 3.1.4. A Work Health and Safety Committee shall be established in accordance with the conditions set forth in the Work Health Safety Act 2012 and its successors (as amended from time to time).

3.2 LOCAL WORKLOAD CONSULTATIVE FORUM

- 3.2.1 The purpose of Local Workload Consultative Forums (LWCF) is to facilitate consultation on issues about existing workloads or possible workload change and the monitoring of impacts resulting from such change.
- 3.2.2 A Local Workload Consultative Forum may be established as a committee reporting to the Senior Leadership Team.
- 3.2.3 A LWCF is to comprise members of a work group, local management and association representation where requested.
- 3.2.4 An individual employee or a work group may request the establishment of a LWCF, and if agreed, the LWCF will be established within 4 weeks of the request.
- 3.2.5 The activities of the LWCF in the area of workload management may include, but not be limited to, the following:
- a) To make recommendations about specific workload issues referred by employees or an association;
 - b) To make recommendations about proposed workload changes;
 - c) To monitor the impacts resulting from a) and/or b);

- e) To assess the implications of workloads from a workplace health and safety perspective and refer relevant matters to the relevant workplace health and safety committee;
 - f) To monitor the impacts on workloads when workplace change occurs and make recommendations on the management of potential workload issues affecting an individual employee or a work group.
- 3.2.6 Upon resolution of the specific workload issue, as determined by the delegate, the LWCF will disband.

3.3 GRIEVANCE AND DISPUTE AVOIDANCE AND SETTLEMENT PROCEDURE

- 3.3.1 This procedure aims to avoid industrial disputes or where a dispute occurs to provide a means of settlement based on consultation, cooperation and discussion and the avoidance of interruption to the performance of work, without prejudice to any party.
- 3.3.2 Workload issues which may give rise to a grievance or dispute may in the first instance be reviewed by the LWCF, however reference to LWCF is not a requirement of the dispute resolution process.
- 3.3.3 Except where a bona fide health and safety issue is involved work should continue on a “status quo” basis while the matter in dispute is being dealt with in accordance with these procedures. A “status quo” basis shall mean the work arrangements in place at the time the matter was first raised in accordance with these procedures.
- 3.3.4 The Parties to this Agreement are obliged to make every endeavour to facilitate the effective functioning of these procedures.
- 3.3.5 For the purpose of this clause an industrial dispute does not include a matter relating to any aspect of a Workers Compensation claim or injury rehabilitation issue; or to any health and safety issue. These matters are covered by separate Legislation and processes, which include processes for dispute resolution.
- 3.3.6 Any industrial dispute or matter likely to create an industrial dispute should be dealt with in the following manner:
- Stage 1 The employee or employee representative should discuss any matter affecting an employee with the supervisor in charge of the section or sections in which the dispute or likely dispute exists. If raising the matter directly with the employee's supervisor is not suitable, the employee may elect to raise the issue with Human Resources or another appropriate manager.
 - Stage 2 If the matter is not resolved at this level, the employee or employee representative is entitled to ask for the matter to be referred to an appropriate Manager who shall arrange a conference to discuss the matter. If requested by the Manager, the subject of the dispute shall be put in writing, so far as is reasonably practicable. The consultation process shall commence as soon as mutually agreed and in accordance with the local dispute process.
 - Stage 3 If the matter remains unresolved following the Manager-level conference, it should be referred to the CE of ForestrySA or their nominated delegate. The CE will review the matter, including any documentation and previous discussions, and may convene a meeting with the employee or employee representative to seek resolution. This step ensures that the issue receives executive-level attention before progressing to external mediation. The CE should respond within 5 working days of the referral, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties.
 - Stage 4 If a matter cannot be resolved following the above procedures, the Parties should enter into consultation at a higher level on both sides, as the Parties consider appropriate. At this stage the employee, employee representative or ForestrySA, can choose to have the matter referred for mediation to an agreed industrial relations consultant, which may include the CPSE or the Industrial Relations and Policy Branch of the Department of Treasury and Finance, who shall arrange a conference to discuss the matter and assist if agreed to by the Parties.

At any stage in the procedures above after consultation between the Parties has taken place in accordance with these procedures, either party may request and be entitled to receive a response to its representations within a reasonable time as may be agreed upon between the Parties. If requested the subject of the dispute shall be put in writing, so far as is reasonably practicable.

- 3.3.7 If a dispute arising from any industrial matter, including a dispute arising under this Agreement, is unable to be resolved at the workplace and all steps for resolving the dispute as detailed above have been exhausted, the dispute shall be referred to SAET.
- 3.3.8 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this clause:
- 3.3.8.1 An employee must continue to perform their work as they would normally unless they have a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to their health or safety; and
- 3.3.8.2 An employee must comply with a direction given by the employer to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:
- a) The work is not safe; or
 - b) Applicable work health and safety legislation would not permit the work to be performed; or
 - c) the work is not appropriate for the employee to perform; or
 - d) there are other reasonable grounds for the employee to refuse to comply with the direction.
- 3.3.9 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by the SAET in accordance with this clause.

- a) Who is paid an allowance in lieu of overtime;

In this circumstance, the employee concerned will not lose pay for ordinary working time occurring during the 8 hours off duty.
- 4.3.9.3. If, on the instructions of ForestrySA, an employee resumes or continues work without having had 8 consecutive hours off duty, the employee will be paid 2.0 times the employee's ordinary rate of pay until released from duty for such period and the employee will then be entitled to be absent until the employee has had 8 consecutive hours off duty. In this circumstance the employee concerned will not lose pay for ordinary working time occurring during the 8 hours off duty.
- 4.3.10. Call Back
 - 4.3.10.1. An employee called back to work overtime after leaving ForestrySA's business premises (whether notified before or after leaving the premises) will be paid for a minimum of 3 hours' work at the appropriate rate for each time the employee is called back. In this situation, except where unforeseen circumstances arise, the employee is not required to work the full 3 hours if the work the employee was called back to perform is completed within a shorter period.
 - 4.3.10.2. The provisions of sub-clause 4.3.10.1 do not apply in cases where it is customary for an employee to return to ForestrySA's premises to perform specific work outside the employee's ordinary working hours, or where the overtime is continuous (subject to a reasonable meal break) with the completion or commencement of ordinary working time.

 - 4.3.10.4. Overtime worked in this sub-clause must not be regarded as overtime for the purpose of clause 4.3.9, when the actual time worked is less than 3 hours on such call back or on each of such call backs.
- 4.3.11. Payment will be made for overtime worked as prescribed in clause 4.3.4. Table 1. However, where an employee requests equivalent Time off in lieu of the overtime worked during the same pay period in which it is worked, the TOIL may be granted at a time agreed between ForestrySA and the employee concerned. TOIL is calculated on an hour for hour basis.
- 4.3.12. Meal Allowance
 - 4.3.12.1. Any employee, who is required to work overtime at the end of the employee's day for more than 2 hours without being notified on the previous day of the requirement to work, will be provided with a meal free of cost. - 4.5.7. For the purposes of this clause, ordinary hours mean the hours of work fixed in accordance with the hours clause of this Agreement (clause 4.4).
- 4.5.8. Rest Period After Overtime
- 4.5.8.1. When overtime work is necessary it will, wherever reasonably practicable, be arranged so that an employee has at least 8 consecutive hours excluding travel time off duty between the work of successive days.
- 4.5.8.2. An employee (other than a casual employee) who works so much overtime between the end of the employee's ordinary work on 1 day and the start of the employee's ordinary work on the next day that the employee has not had at least 8 consecutive hours off duty between those times must, subject to this sub-clause, be released after finishing such overtime until the employee has had 8 consecutive hours off duty. In this circumstance, the employee concerned will not lose pay for ordinary working time occurring during the 8 hours off duty.
- 4.5.8.3. If, on the instructions of ForestrySA, an employee resumes or continues work without having had 8 consecutive hours off duty, the employee will be paid 2.0 times the employee's ordinary rate of pay until released from duty for such period and the employee will then be entitled to be absent until the employee has had 8 consecutive hours off duty. In this circumstance, the employee concerned will not lose pay for ordinary working time occurring during the 8 hours off duty.
- 4.5.9. Call Back
- 4.5.9.1. An employee called back to work overtime, after leaving ForestrySA's business premises (whether notified before or after leaving the premises), will be paid for a minimum of 3 hours' work at the appropriate rate for each time the employee is called back. In this situation, except where unforeseen circumstances arise, the employee is not required to work the full 3 hours if the work the employee was called back to perform is completed within a shorter period.
- 4.5.9.2. The provisions of sub-clause 4.5.9.1 do not apply in cases where it is customary for an employee to return to ForestrySA's premises to perform specific work outside the employee's ordinary working hours, or where the overtime is continuous (subject to a reasonable meal break) with the completion or commencement of ordinary working time.
- 4.5.9.3. Where an employee is called back for duty, the employee will be paid at the overtime rate from the time the employee leaves home until the employee returns home.
- 4.5.9.4. Overtime worked as a result of a call back must not be regarded as overtime for the purpose of clause 4.5.8, when the actual time worked is less than 3 hours on such call back or on each of such call backs.
- 4.5.10. Payment will be made for overtime worked as prescribed in clause 4.3.4. Table 1. However, where an employee requests equivalent time as Flexitime in lieu of the overtime worked during the same pay period in which the overtime is worked, the Flexitime may be granted at a time agreed between ForestrySA and the employee concerned. Flexitime is calculated on an hour for hour basis.
- 4.5.11. Meal Allowance
- 4.5.11.1. Any employee who is required to work overtime at the end of the employee's shift for more than 2 hours without being notified on the previous day of the requirement to work, will be provided with a meal free of cost. Agreement. However, provision of a free meal or the payment of meal money will not be applied to:

- a) An employee living in the same locality who can reasonably return home for meals; or
- b) An employee working overtime on Call Back as prescribed in clause 4.5.9.

4.5.11.2. This sub-clause also applies to an employee who is required to be on duty to meet an emergency (not being during ordinary rostered hours) if the employee is required to continue work for more than 2 hours after 12 noon or more than 2 hours after 4:15 pm on any day.

4.5.12. In calculating overtime each day stands alone.

- a) Commencing before the time prescribed for the commencement of the summertime period and,
- b) Commencing on or before the time prescribed for the termination of the summer time period, will be the number of hours represented by the difference between the time recorded by the clock at the beginning of the shift and the time recorded at the end of it, the time of the clock in each case to be set to the time fixed in accordance with the daylight saving legislation.

4.5.13.2. In this sub-clause the expressions "standard time" and "summertime" have the same meaning as prescribed by the daylight saving legislation.

4.6.3 A part-time employee receives pro-rata entitlements to personal leave, annual leave, bereavement leave and Public Holidays (where Public Holiday falls on a regular rostered day).

4.6.4 Additional Hours

- a) An employee engaged and paid in accordance with this clause who has for a period of at least 12 continuous months been regularly working additional hours at the request of ForestrySA, and who has a reasonable expectation that the need to work such additional hours will be ongoing, is entitled to apply, in writing, to have the additional hours added to the employee's substantive hours. For the purpose of this sub-clause, 12 continuous months means the 12 continuous months immediately preceding the date the written application for the additional hours is received by ForestrySA.

- b) ForestrySA, as the employer of an employee who is entitled to make the application described in sub-clause 4.6.4(a), must notify the employee in writing of the provisions of sub-clause 4.6.4(a) within 4 weeks of the employee completing the 12-month qualifying period.
 - c) Any employee who is entitled to make the application described in sub-clause 4.6.4(a) and who does not make such application within 4 weeks of receiving the written notice in sub-clause 4.6.4(b) will be deemed to have declined to have the additional hours added to the employee's substantive hours.
 - d) Upon receiving a written application from an employee pursuant to sub-clause 4.6.4(a) ForestrySA must, within 4 weeks of receiving such notice, indicate in writing whether an increase in the employee's substantive hours of work is, or is not, agreed to. Where an increase is not agreed to, ForestrySA must provide written reasons for same.
 - e) Where an employee's application is not agreed to and the employee considers that in not agreeing ForestrySA has acted unreasonably, the employee may seek to have the dispute resolved through the Grievance and Dispute Avoidance and Settlement Procedure set out in clause 3.2.
 - f) Where ForestrySA agrees to an employee's request to have additional hours added to the employee's substantive hours, the resulting total will form the employee's new substantive working hours. An employee may only vary these new substantive hours with the written agreement of ForestrySA.
 - g) Where the actual amount of additional hours regularly worked by an employee during the 12-month qualifying period are fixed and constant, the additional hours to be added to the employee's substantive hours will be those fixed and constant hours, or as otherwise agreed between ForestrySA and the employee.
 - h) Where the actual amount of additional hours regularly worked by an employee during the 12-month qualifying period are variable, ForestrySA will determine the number of additional hours to be offered to the employee on a substantive basis and their configuration taking into account:
 - (i) The average of the additional hours worked during the 12-month qualifying period;
 - (ii) The employee's patterns of employment during the qualifying period; and
 - (iii) Operational requirements.
 - i) An employee may seek to have any dispute as to the appropriate number of additional hours to be offered as substantive hours resolved through the Grievance and Dispute Avoidance and Settlement Procedure set out in clause 3.2.
 - j) Where additional hours are granted to an employee, the employee's pro-rata leave entitlements must be adjusted accordingly, taking into account the number of completed months at the higher number of hours in the service year within which the additional hours are formally granted by ForestrySA.
- 4.6.5 A part-time employee will be engaged for a minimum period of 3 hours at a time, unless otherwise agreed between ForestrySA and the employee.
- 4.6.6 The Chief Executive may approve part-time employment for less than 15 hours per week if it is a fixed and constant arrangement.
- 4.6.7 "Constant arrangement" is to be interpreted as continuous in the same sense that part time employment is regarded as continuous (e.g. 3 days per week worked on a regular basis every week is regarded as continuous employment).
- 4.6.8 A part-time employee may engage in remunerative employment outside ForestrySA with approval from the ForestrySA CE.

4.6.9 An ongoing ForestrySA employee cannot be forced to convert to part-time employment.

4.7 CASUAL EMPLOYMENT

- a) For a period not exceeding 4 weeks; or
- b) Will have hours that are irregular; or
- c) Do not exceed 15 hours per week.

4.7.2 A casual employee is paid for each hour worked at the hourly rate prescribed by this Agreement for the work performed and a casual loading is also applied to the actual hours worked to compensate for the lack of sick and annual leave entitlements and payment for Public Holidays not worked. Such an employee does not have continuity of employment. The casual loading rate is 25 per cent.

4.7.3 (a) A casual employee is one who is engaged to work on short term and/or variable employment arrangements.

(b) Any casual employee engaged and paid in accordance with this clause:

(d) Any eligible casual employee who does not make an election as provided in sub-clause 4.7.3(c) within 4 weeks of receiving the written notice in sub-clause 4.7.3(c) will be deemed to have agreed to remain a casual employee.

(e) Any eligible casual employee who remains a casual employee pursuant to sub-clause 4.7.3(d) may, provided that the employee also remains an eligible casual employee pursuant to the provisions of sub-clause 4.7.3(b), subsequently elect to convert to permanent employment status by giving ForestrySA notice in writing of such an election. In this instance, the 12-month qualifying period referred to in sub-clause 4.7.3(b), will be the 12 months immediately preceding the date that written notice is given.

(f) Upon receiving written notice from an employee pursuant to sub-clause 4.7.3(b) or 4.7.3(c), ForestrySA must, within 4 weeks of receiving such notice, indicate in writing whether the conversion to permanent employment is, or is not, agreed to. Where the conversion is not agreed to, ForestrySA must provide written reasons for same.

(g) Where an eligible casual employee's election to convert to permanent employment is not agreed to and the employee considers that in not agreeing ForestrySA has acted unreasonably, the employee may seek to have the dispute resolved through the Grievance and Dispute Avoidance and Settlement Procedure set out in clause 3.2.

(h) Where an eligible casual employee has transferred to permanent employment pursuant to the provisions of this clause, the employee may only revert to casual employment with the written agreement of ForestrySA.

- (i) Service for the purpose of leave entitlements (other than long service leave) will be calculated from the date of commencement of permanent part-time or full-time employment.
- (j) Where an eligible casual employee elects to convert to permanent employment status and ForestrySA agrees to such conversion:
 - (i) the normal hours of duty that will apply under the new contract of employment will be the average of the hours the employee has worked during the preceding 12 month qualifying period specified in sub-clause 4.7.3(b) or 4.7.3(e) (as appropriate), or as otherwise agreed between ForestrySA and the employee. Where the work is subject to seasonal fluctuations, the hours of duty may be configured in a manner designed to most appropriately meet the fluctuating demand. In determining the most appropriate working arrangements including configuration of hours, ForestrySA must have regard to:
 - 1. Operational requirements;
 - 2. The employee's patterns of employment during the 12 month qualifying period;
 - 3. The employee's personal circumstances.
- (k) A casual employee will be engaged for a minimum period of 3 hours, unless otherwise expressly agreed between ForestrySA and the employee.

4.8 TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT

- 4.8.1 A temporary employee is one engaged to work for a constant number of hours per week on a part-time or full-time basis for a fixed term of at least 1 month duration.
- 4.8.2 This type of employment must be supported by a written contract of employment which clearly specifies the commencing and finishing dates of the period of employment.
- 4.8.3 A temporary fixed term contract of employment cannot be extended. Where ForestrySA wishes to retain the services of an employee beyond the expiry date of a fixed term contract, ForestrySA may offer the employee a new fixed term contract for the period the employee is required. Any such new contract must also specify the commencing and finishing dates of the period of employment.
- 4.8.4 Any temporary employee who has been engaged on one or more separate contracts of employment by ForestrySA (which may include periods of employment on a casual basis), such as the employee has been continuously employed without a break (other than for approved paid or unpaid leave services) for at least 12 months, and who has a reasonable expectation of ongoing employment, is eligible to elect, in writing, to convert to permanent part-time or full-time (as appropriate) employment.
- 4.8.5 ForestrySA must notify an eligible temporary employee in writing of the provisions of sub-clause 4.8.4 prior to the expiration of the employee's current contract.

- 4.8.7 Upon receiving written notice of election from an eligible temporary employee pursuant to sub-clause 4.8.4, ForestrySA must, within 4 weeks of receiving such notice or prior to the expiration of the employee's current contract, whichever is the earlier, indicate in writing whether the conversion to permanent employment is, or is not, agreed to. Where the conversion is not agreed to, ForestrySA must provide written reasons for same.

4.8.8 Where an employee's election to convert to permanent employment is not agreed to and the employee considers that in not agreeing ForestrySA has acted unreasonably, the employee may seek to have the dispute resolved through the Grievance and Dispute Avoidance and Settlement Procedure set out in clause 3.2.

4.8.9 Where an eligible temporary employee's election to convert to permanent status is agreed to:

- a) The hours of duty that will apply under the new, permanent contract of employment will be the average of the ordinary hours worked by the employee during the 12-month qualifying period specified in sub-clause 4.8.4 or as otherwise agreed between ForestrySA and the employee;
- b) Appropriate working arrangements, including the configuration of the hours of duty, will be determined by ForestrySA having regard to the employee's patterns of employment during the 12-month qualifying period and operational requirements.

Such extra rate will be in substitution for and not cumulative upon the shift premiums prescribed by this Agreement.

4.10 ABSENCE FROM DUTY

Provided that the aggregate of paid personal leave, special birthing parent leave and birthing parent leave must not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under sub-clause 8.8.3.2 and the birthing parent is entitled to take unpaid special birthing parent leave for such periods as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary.

8.8.9.2. Where an employee is suffering from an illness not related to the direct consequences of the confinement, an employee may take any paid personal leave to which they are entitled in lieu of, or in addition to, special birthing parent leave.

- a) Illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy; or 8.8.11.2. If the transfer to a safe job is not considered practicable, the employee is entitled, or ForestrySA may require the employee, to take leave for such period as is certified necessary by a legally qualified medical practitioner.

8.8.13.2. The employee shall take reasonable steps to inform ForestrySA about any significant matter that will affect the employee's decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the employee intends to return to work and whether the employee intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis.

8.8.13.3. The employee shall also notify ForestrySA of changes of address or other contact details which might affect ForestrySA's capacity to comply with sub-clause 8.8.13.1.

8.8.14. Return to work after parental leave held immediately before proceeding on parental leave. Where such a position is no longer available, but there are other positions available that the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, ForestrySA shall make all reasonable attempts to return the employee to a position comparable in status and pay to that of the employee's former position.

8.8.15. Return to Work on a Part Time Basis

8.8.15.1. Subject to this clause, if agreed between the Chief Executive and employee, upon return to work after parental leave or adoption leave one of the parents may elect to return on a part-time basis, at the employee's substantive level, until the child's second birthday.

8.8.15.2. The following conditions apply to an employee applying to return on a part time basis:

- a) The Chief Executive will consider an employee's request having regard to both the operational needs of the business or particular workplace, and the employee's circumstances.
- b) The employee will provide such request at least six weeks prior to the date on which the employee's birthing parent or adoption leave is due to expire, and will provide to the Chief Executive such information as may reasonably be required, including the proportion of time sought, and the date of the relevant child's 2nd birthday.
- c) At least six weeks prior to the relevant child's second birthday, the employee will advise the Chief Executive whether the employee will revert to employment on a full time basis or seeks to continue to be employed on a part-time basis.

- c) To return to work from a period of parental leave on a part-time basis until the child reaches school age, to assist the employee in reconciling work and parental responsibilities.

8.8.16.2. ForestrySA shall consider the request having regard to the employee's circumstances and, provided the request is genuinely based on the employee's parental responsibilities, may only refuse the request on reasonable grounds related to the effect on the workplace or ForestrySA's business. Such grounds might include cost, lack of adequate replacement staff, loss of efficiency and the impact on customer service.

8.8.16.3. The employee's request and ForestrySA's decision made under sub-clause 8.8.16.1(b) and (c) must be recorded in writing.

8.8.16.4. Where an employee wishes to make a request under sub-clause 8.8.16.1(c), such a request must be made as soon as possible but no less than 7 weeks prior to the date upon which the employee is due to return to work from parental leave.

8.8.17. Termination of employment

8.8.17.1. An employee on parental leave may terminate their employment at any time during the period of leave by giving the required notice.

8.8.17.2. ForestrySA must not terminate the employment of an employee on the ground of her pregnancy or an employee's absence on parental leave. Otherwise the rights of ForestrySA in relation to termination of employment are not affected by this clause.

8.8.18. Replacement Employee

8.8.18.1. A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged or temporarily promoted or transferred, as a result of an employee proceeding on parental leave.

8.8.18.2. Before ForestrySA engages a replacement employee ForestrySA must inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

8.8.19. Paid Parental Leave

8.8.19.1. An employee who is granted paid birthing parent leave, paid adoption leave and paid leave to enable parent-child relationships through surrogacy parenting will be entitled to the benefits provided by this clause. For the purpose of this clause birthing parent and adoption leave includes a parent taking primary caring responsibility (parent-child relationship) as a consequence of a surrogacy arrangement.

8.8.19.2. Subject to this clause, an employee, other than a casual employee, who has completed 12 months continuous service immediately prior to the birth of the child, or immediately prior to taking custody of an adopted child (as applicable) is entitled to 16 weeks paid birthing parent leave or adoption leave (as applicable) (the "applicable maximum period"). "Adopted child" means a child under 16 years of age.

8.8.19.3. An employee who, at the time of taking such paid birthing parent leave or adoption leave, has been employed by ForestrySA for not less than 5 years (including any periods of approved unpaid leave) will be entitled to twenty (20) weeks paid parental leave.

8.8.19.4. The following conditions apply to an employee applying for paid birthing parent leave or paid adoption leave:

- a) The total of paid and unpaid birthing parent/adoption/surrogacy/parental/special leave is not to exceed 104 calendar weeks in relation to the employee's child. For the purposes of this clause, child includes children of a multiple birth/adoption.
- b) An employee will be entitled to the applicable maximum period, paid at the employee's ordinary rate of pay (excluding allowances, penalties or other additional payments) from the date birthing parent/adoption/surrogacy leave commences. The paid birthing parent/adoption/surrogacy leave is not to be extended by public holidays, rostered days off, programmed days off or any other leave falling within the period of paid leave.
- c) At the time of applying for paid birthing parent leave or paid adoption leave, the employee may elect in writing:
 - (i) To take paid leave in two periods split into equal proportions during the first 12 months of the commencement of their paid leave; or
 - (ii) To take the paid leave at half pay in which case, notwithstanding any other clause of this Agreement, the employee will be entitled, during the period of leave, to be paid at half the ordinary rate of pay (excluding allowances, penalties or other additional payment) from the date birthing parent/adoption leave commences; or
 - (iii) A combination of (i) and (ii)

- d) A Part Time employee will have the same entitlements as a full-time employee, but paid on a pro-rata basis according to the average number of contracted hours during the immediately preceding 12 months (disregarding any periods of leave).
- e) During periods of paid or unpaid birthing parent leave, personal leave with pay will not be granted for a normal period of absence for confinement. However, any illness arising from the incidence of the pregnancy may be covered by personal leave to the extent available, subject to the usual provisions relating to the provision of a medical certificate and the medical certificate indicates that the illness has arisen from the pregnancy.
- f) Where both prospective parents are employees covered by the Agreement, the period of paid birthing parent or adoption leave (as applicable) may be shared by both employees, provided that the total period of paid birthing parent/or adoption/ surrogacy leave does not exceed the applicable maximum and that the leave is taken in periods of not less than 4 weeks and has regard to the operational needs of ForestrySA.

PART 9: TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND REDUNDANCY

9.1 NOTICE OF TERMINATION BY FORESTRYSA

- 9.1.1. In order to terminate the employment of an employee, ForestrySA must give the employee the following notice: (Period of continuous service period of notice)

Between 1 to 3 years	2 weeks
Between 3 to five years	3 weeks
More than five years	4 weeks

- 9.1.2. In addition to the notice in clause 9.1.1, an employee over 45 years of age at the time of the giving of notice with not less than 2 years continuous service is entitled to additional notice of 1 week.
- 9.1.3. Payment at the ordinary rate of pay in lieu of the notice prescribed in clause 9.1.1 and/or clause 9.1.2 must be made if the appropriate notice period is not given. Employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu.
- 9.1.4. In calculating any payment in lieu of notice, ForestrySA must pay the wages an employee would have received in respect of the ordinary time the employee would have worked during the period of notice had the employee's employment not been terminated.
- 9.1.5. The period of notice in this clause does not apply in the case of:
- a) Dismissal for conduct that at common law justifies instant dismissal;
 - b) A casual employee;
 - c) An employee engaged for a specific period of time; or
 - d) An employee engaged for a specific task or tasks.

9.1.6. Time Off During Notice Period

9.1.7. Statement of Employment

At the employee's request ForestrySA must provide to an employee whose employment has been terminated, a written statement specifying the period of the employee's employment and the classification of or the type of work performed by the employee.

9.1.8. Payment in Lieu

If ForestrySA makes payment in lieu for all or any of the periods of notice prescribed, the period for which such payment is made must be treated as service with ForestrySA for the purposes of computing any service related entitlement of the employee.

9.1.9. Notice of Termination by Employee

In order to terminate employment an employee must give ForestrySA the following notice:

Period of Continuous Service / Period of Notice

- a) Not more than 1 year / at least 1 weeks' notice

- b) More than 1 year / at least 2 weeks' notice

9.2 CONTINUOUS SERVICE

- f) Interruption or termination of the employee's service arising directly or indirectly from an industrial dispute if the employee returns to the service of ForestrySA in consequence of the settlement of the dispute.
- g) Transfer of the employment of an employee from one employer to a second employer where the second employer is the successor or assignee or transmittee of the first employer's business. In this case, service with the first employer is deemed to be service with the second employer.
- h) Interruption or termination of the employee's service by ForestrySA for any reason other than those referred to in this clause if the worker returns to the service of ForestrySA within 2 months of the date on which the service was interrupted or terminated.
- i) Any other absence from work for any reason other than those referred to in this clause, unless written notice is given by ForestrySA that the absence from work is to be taken as breaking the employee's continuity of service. Such notice must be given during the period of absence or no later than 14 days after the end of the period of absence.

9.2.2. Calculation of period of service

Where an employee's service is deemed to be continuous under this clause, the period of absence from work is not to be taken into account in calculating the employee's period of time served with ForestrySA except:

- a) To the extent that the employee receives or is entitled to receive pay for the period; or
- b) Where the absence results from a decision of ForestrySA to stand the employee off without pay.

9.3 REDEPLOYMENT, RETRAINING AND REDUNDANCY

9.3.1. Given the principles set out in this clause 9.3 are reflective of policies applicable to the Public Service (as defined in the South Australian Public Sector Act 2009) and certain other public sector agencies, this clause 9.3 shall apply to employees for so long as they are employed by ForestrySA.

9.3.2. ForestrySA will:

- a) Acknowledge that this clause is not to be used to manage performance-related matters and/or misconduct.

- b) Encourage employees to adapt and develop capabilities to meet changing needs and challenges and those who are declared 'Excess Employees' will engage in opportunities for retraining and redeployment.

- h) The employment of an employee may not be terminated at the end of a 12-month period under this Clause unless ForestrySA has made reasonable endeavours to find other suitable duties within ForestrySA or SA Public Sector.

9.3.3. ForestrySA 'Excess Employees' are responsible for actively adapting and developing their skills including:

- a) Following receipt of written advice of being declared an excess employee, actively consider and indicate their preferred option: to either work to secure another position i.e. redeployment; or seek an invitation for an early separation payment.
- b) Cooperate and participate in re/training opportunities and make every effort to adapt to and undertake the role/s or position/s identified or into which the employee is placed or assigned.

- e) Continue to be subject to processes and requirements (legislative, policy and administrative) applicable to ForestrySA employees.

9.3.4. Application of separation payments

- 9.3.4.1. Voluntary separation arrangements will be in accordance with Treasurer's Budget Statement June 2014: TVSP 10 weeks plus 2 weeks payment per year of service to a maximum of 52 weeks.

¹ This is intended to be broadly considered: does the person have the skills and capabilities to perform the duties to a substantial extent (including with training). That is, there does not need to be direct match with all of the requirements of the role/position.

- 9.3.4.2. A voluntary separation arrangement must be offered to an excess employee if they haven't been successful in gaining an alternative position within the first 3 months of being declared excess (date of written notice).
