RE: MOTOR ACCIDENT COMMISSION REALIGNMENT OF RESPONSIBILITIES

Thank you for your minute providing an update of South Australia Police's (SAPOL) activities and views in relation to the transfer of the Motor Accident Commission's (MAC) road safety functions and responsibilities.

Department of Treasury and Finance (DTF) officers have been consulting with agencies to finalise the transition of MAC's road safety functions post 1 July 2019, with the division of functional responsibilities consistent with Cabinet's approval of

I encourage SAPOL to continue their engagement with DPTI and DTF representatives to progress the effective transition of MAC road safety functions and ensure an effective cross agency road safety governance group is established and setting the road safety strategy post 1 July 2019. I understand SAPOL is progressing this and appreciate the considerable work that SAPOL has undertaken to this end.
